

Extra Credit 5 points

You MUST include your receipt AND a picture of yourself at exhibit for credit. If you don't have these, don't turn it in.

Topographic relief table depicting Southern California coastline (just outside entrance to exhibit)

1. California is a biodiversity hotspot. Human activity has decreased native habitat by _____ percent.

Wildfire exhibit (go inside circular room with murals, etc. on the wall)

2. How many square miles of green chaparral covers California? _____.
3. This habitat is adapted to burn every _____ years.

Oaks All Around

4. How many types of oaks in Southern California are there according to this exhibit? _____.

Where does San Diego water come from? (see wall exhibit)

5. _____% Colorado River; _____% Northern Ca; _____% local sources

It's Summer on the Patio

6. What food is the North American raccoon eating? (scour the exhibit for the raccoon)_____.
7. What food is the household cat eating? (scour the exhibit for the cat)_____.

A Changing Tide

8. The large skull fossil that was the subject of Ray Gilmore's research belongs to what animal?_____.

Not –So-Silent-Night

9. What animal that we can't see or hear does technology provide detection for?_____.

A Place to Eat, Rest and Nest

10. Wetlands provide food, shelter and protection to what 5 animals specifically featured here (under flip card)?