Subject: Lab Technician - Immediate Opening

Sent: 5/4/06 3:59 PM

Importance: Normal

Advanced Applied Adhesives, Inc., (AAA) a specialty chemical company located in the Scripps Ranch area, has an immediate opening for a part time permanent position (20 to 40 hours per week) of Lab Technician to assist in the production of polymer resins and other specialty chemicals. AAA supplies adhesives and specialty chemicals to the semiconductor market and utilizes innovative unique resins and oligomers in the formulation of these specialty chemicals.

Lab Technician responsibilities include safely handling bulk chemicals and running chemical reactions in a small scale production environment, and performing process optimization experiments as needed, reporting to the process chemist. Ideal candidate is a technology student preferably in chemical engineering, chemistry, or material science, intelligent, hard working and a hands-on attitude with excellent record keeping skills.

Salary range $8.00-$10.00 per hour.
