

San Diego Mesa College Learning Resource Center: Highlights

First Floor - Library resources and services: reference, check-out, course reserves, periodicals, career collection, library classroom. Reference area includes 35 computers for accessing research databases, the library's online catalog, and the Internet. LRC Café.

Second Floor - Study space to accommodate 335 students: study carrels and tables throughout the open areas, plus 19 small group study rooms for student use. Also located on this floor are the LRC classroom and the High Tech Center (an adapted computer lab for students with disabilities).

Third Floor - The library's circulating book collection as well as study space for 190 students.

Fourth Floor - The Center for Independent Learning (with 144 networked computers for student use, color printer, 7 mediated study rooms, and a multimedia lab) and Audiovisual Services (with its collection of videos and other media, 9 viewing/listening booths, a large media viewing room, and audiovisual production facilities).

All Floors have rest rooms, water fountains, photocopiers, and computer stations.

PLEASE NOTE: ID CARDS ARE REQUIRED TO USE SOME LRC FACILITIES AND SERVICES, INCLUDING PRINTING AND COPYING.

Phone Numbers

(All 619-388-)

Audiovisual Services	2690
Center for Independent Learning	2769
High Tech Center	2893
Library Information (all services)	2695
Library Reference Desk	2660
Office of the Dean of Learning Resources & Technology	2799

LRC Website: <http://www.sdmesa.edu/lrc>

Hours of Operation

(Fall and Spring Semesters)

Mon.-Thur. 7 AM - 10 PM
Friday 7 AM - 5 PM

Closed Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays

LIBRARY SERVICES

Course Reserves - If your teacher places something on reserve for your class, check under COURSE RESERVES in the Library's catalog. Look for the Reserve Number. Once you have it, ask at the Lobby Check-Out Desk.

Holds - If you want a Mesa book that is checked out, you can arrange to get it when it is returned. We will notify you when it comes in. Ask for a form at the Reference Desk.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL) - If you want a circulating book from City or Miramar, we can get it for you. It will take 3-4 working days and we will notify you when the book arrives. Ask for a form at the Reference Desk.

Internet Access - Our terminals provide access to the World Wide Web, allowing you to do research.

LRC Café - Coffee, hot chocolate, muffins, croissants, and more are available for you to enjoy in the Café Commons area on the first floor.

Remote Access - You can access our online catalog via the Internet. Bookmark the URL for future use. You can also access ProQuest, EbscoHost, and our other databases. Use your CSID number and last name.

WiFi - WiFi is available in the entire LRC building.

LIBRARY LOAN PERIODS

Books	2 Weeks (Maximum 10 books per student) - Renewals may be done by phone or online
Print Periodicals	In-library use only (Copying machines available)
Audiovisuals	On-site use only

LRC Faculty and Administrative Personnel

Dean's Office

William Craft, Dean of Learning Resources & Technology
Joyce Skaryak, Senior Secretary to the Dean

Center for Independent Learning (CIL)

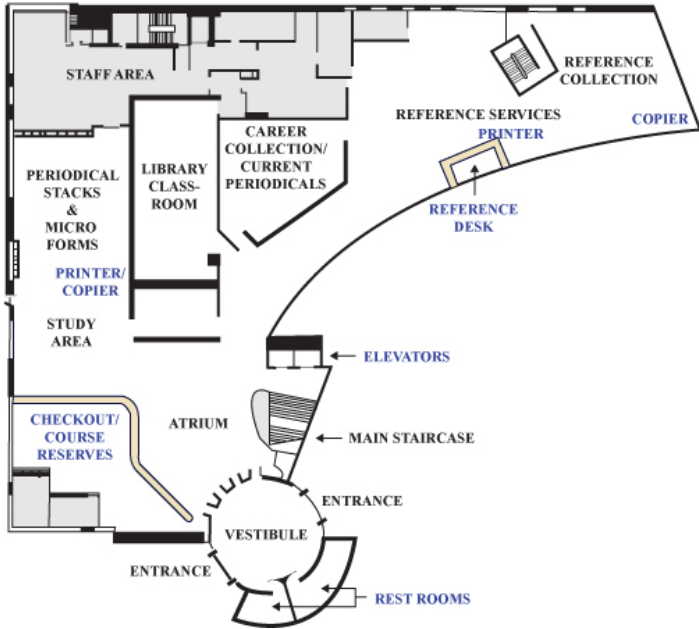

Hank Beaver, Instructional Systems Specialist
Paul Gomez, Instructional Support Supervisor

Library

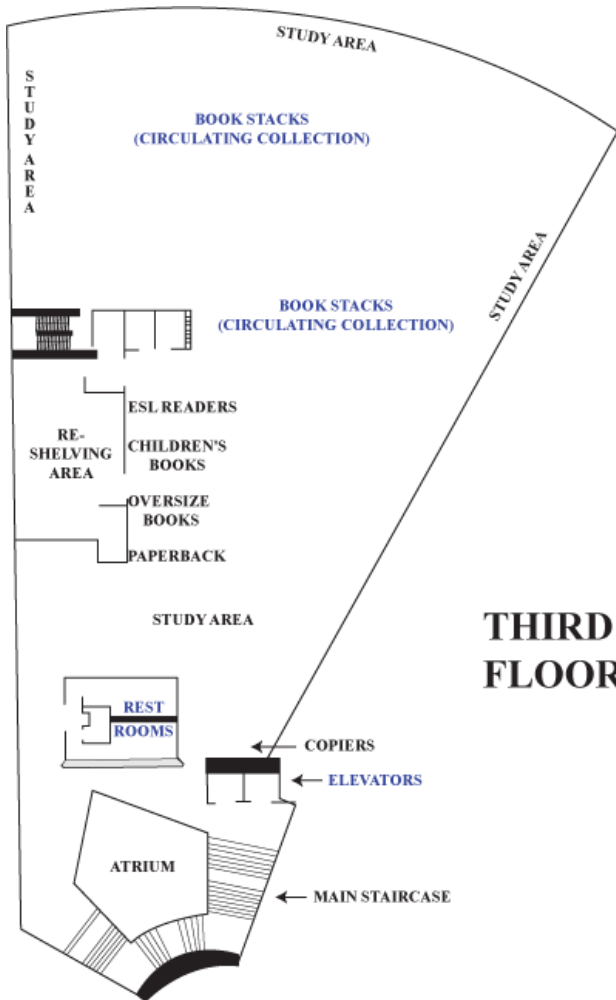

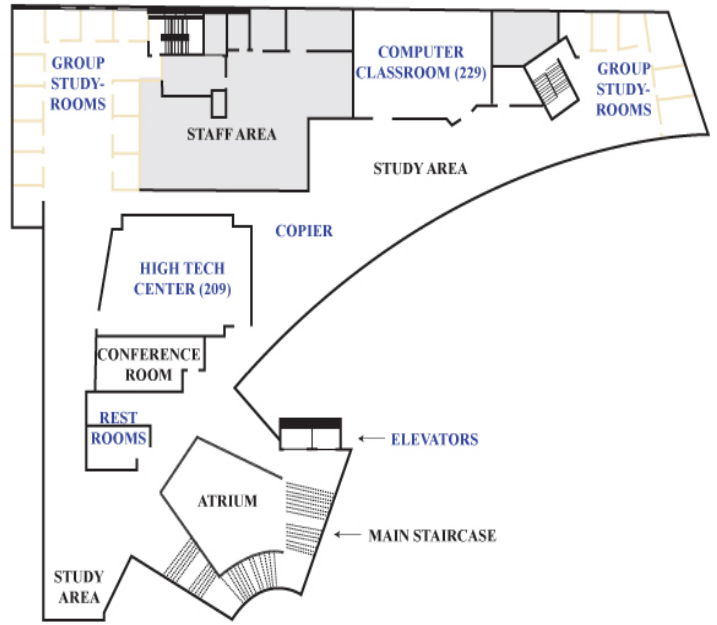

Jill Baker, Audiovisual Services Librarian
Jack Forman, Public Services/Instruction Librarian
Devin Milner, Collection Development Librarian
Roger Olson, Technical Services Librarian
Val Ontell, Librarian
Charlotta Robertson, Instructional Support Supervisor
Jean Smith, Periodicals/Electronic Resources Librarian
Alison Steinberg, Online Services Librarian

San Diego Mesa College Learning Resource Center

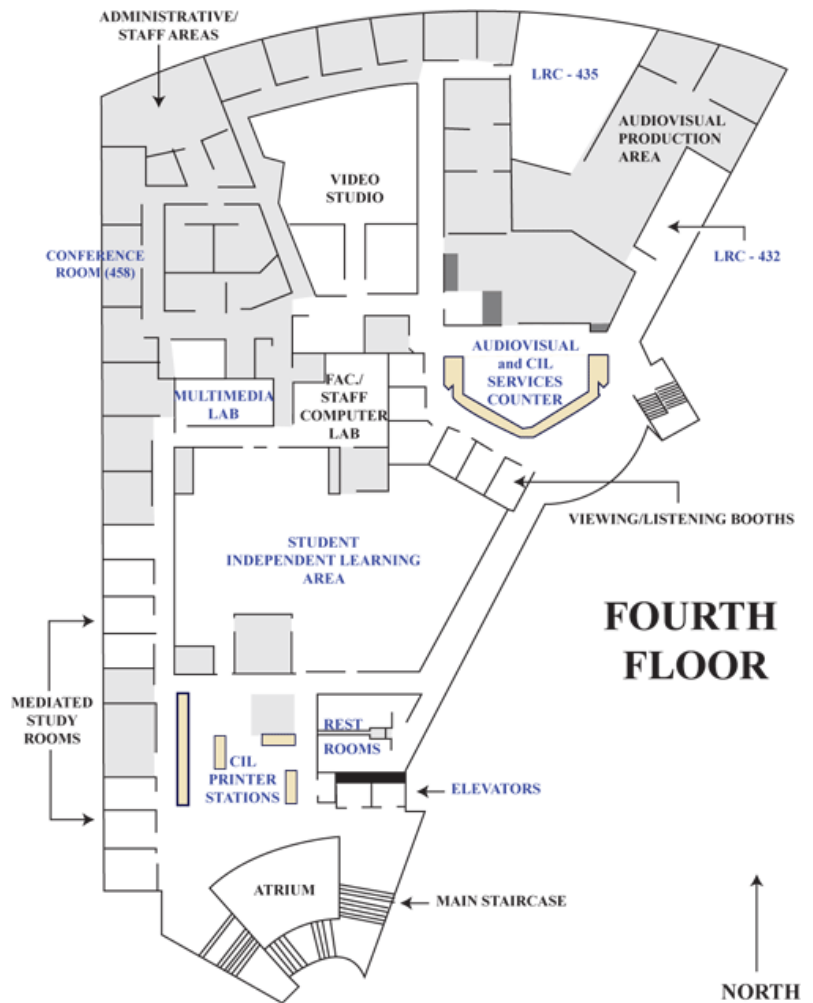

FIRST FLOOR

SECOND FLOOR

THIRD FLOOR

FOURTH FLOOR

